Kauffman Stadium

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 45th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2017. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 79,611,876 fans since 1973, 'The K' with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

The Royals drew over 2 million fans to the park for the second year in a row in 2016, something that hadn't been accomplished in back-to-back years since 1990-91. 'The K' has played host to the World Series twice over the past three seasons and was showcased at the 2012 All-Star Game.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of a true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touch each and every fan entering the park.

After debuting the spectacular 84' x 104' Crown Vision HD scoreboard for the 2008 season, the Royals put the finishing touches on one of the most majestic and visually exciting scoreboards in the world with a brand-new interactive crown rising about 40 feet above Crown Vision.

Upon entering through the larger and grander entrances, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 260-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. An increase in both concessions and restrooms limit the time spent away from your seats.

Fans who want a field level view of the action can sit in the Bats Crown Club, behind home plate, or in two field-level suites, located down the line from both the home and visiting dugouts.

Introduced in 2016, the Craft & Draft featuring Boulevard is a unique approach to the social experience of baseball located in the left field corner of The K on the Loge Level. The area replaced the former .390 Bar and Grill. The dining area provides 24 beers on tap and 50 bottled beers as well as a menu that takes a handcrafted approach to gastro pub fair with an emphasis on fresh and local ingredients.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans of Kansas City entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several brand-new locations to take in a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with KCP&L. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area has become among the most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the iconic fountains.

The left-field area is home to the 7,000-square foot Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, which opened in 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as memorabilia that will delight Royals fans. Behind the Hall of Fame, fans will find the kids area complete with the Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there is state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at the Sluggerrrr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the base run all sponsored by Price Chopper and several kids-friendly food options, including Belfonte's Ice Cream Shop.

Also in left field this season will be the set for the Royals' official pre- and post-game show, Royals Live on FOX Sports Kansas City. Throughout the season, broadcasters Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery will host shows from this set.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward Sweet Baby Rays BBQ and the Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts The 360 Baseline Bar and, new for 2017, the Blue Moon Taproom.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, features wider concourses, fan amenities, the Diamond Club premium seating area and 5,000-square foot retail store.

The Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the View Level (upper deck) has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms and a retail store.

The new Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

The History of Kauffman Stadium

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84, '85, 2014 and '15, with 13 World Series tilts in 1980, 1985, 2014 and 2015. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at eight feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to nine feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 campaign, additional field level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success.

Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citizens.

Kauffman, who founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company with sales reaching nearly one billion dollars, possessed a sense of daring and an innate ability to motivate those around him. "Mr. K" also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was inbred into the Royals' organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and being named one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

DAVID GLASS CHAIRMAN/OWNER

David Glass enters his 18th season as Owner and Chief Executive Officer of the Kansas City Royals. In 1993, Glass was appointed interim chairman and Chief Executive Officer upon the passing of Ewing Kauffman. In April, 2000, his family acquired the Royals organization, where he continues to serve in the same capacity.

In 2015, the Royals captured the franchise's first World Series Championship in 30 years, electrifying the community and Kansas City fans all over the world.

During his ownership, Mr. Glass has been an active member of Major League Baseball and serves on several key committees which include the Executive Council of Major League Baseball and MLB Advanced Media where he has served as Chairman since 2010. He was elected to the Board of Directors of the Baseball Hall of Fame, in July, 2000, where he serves as a member of the Pension Committee.

Prior to acquiring the Royals, Mr. Glass spent 30 years with Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., serving as president and chief executive officer for 12 years and earning the reputation as one of the nation's premier executives. Under Glass' stewardship, he was credited with leading Wal-Mart through a period of unprecedented growth and becoming the nation's largest retailer with stores, supercenters and Sam's Clubs throughout the United States and internationally.

As a leader in the retail industry, Mr. Glass has been recognized with numerous awards throughout the years and was inducted into the Retail Hall of Fame in August, 2000. He served as a member of the Wal-Mart Board of Directors until 2011.

From day one, the goal Moore set out to accomplish was bringing a World Championship back to Kansas City, a dream that was brought to fruition in 2015. The Royals bested the New York Mets in five games to win the franchise's first World Series championship in 30 years. The club became just the fourth since 2000 to reach the Fall Classic in back-to-back seasons after falling to the San Francisco Giants in the 2014 World Series.

In 2016, the Royals recorded their fourth-straight season with a record of .500 or better, going 81-81. Despite a rash of injuries to key members of the club, Kansas City stayed in contention for a postseason berth until the final week of the regular season. During the season, Moore earned a pair of honors, being recognized by the Boys & Girls Club with the John J. "Buck" O'Neil Diamond MVP Award as well as the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum's Rube Foster Award for AL Executive of the Year.

The 2015 season was one for the ages as Kansas City won the franchise's second World Series title, its second-straight American League Championship and fourth overall, as well as its first American League Central crown. The club won an A.L.-best 95 games, which was their highest total since 1980, while it was the franchise's first division title in 30 seasons. For his part in the success during the 2015 season, Moore was given the Esurance MLB Award for the Best Executive. It marked the second-straight season that he earned the honor.

Moore and his staff have tirelessly worked to build a consistently strong farm system that was rated by Baseball America, MLB.com and ESPN.com as the best in baseball in 2011. The entire operation was honored in 2014 as the 'Organization of the Year' by Baseball America, marking just the second time the franchise has won since the publication debuted the award in 1982.

Moore, a native of Wichita, Kan., brought an impressive resume to the Royals in 2006. He had previously worked for the Atlanta Braves organization since 1994, most recently serving as Assistant General Manager/Baseball Operations since August, 2005.

Prior to his tenure as assistant general manager with Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel where he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of scouting and player development. He originally joined the Braves organization as an area scouting supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August, 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department. Moore was named Assistant Director of Scouting in November of 1996 and added the title of Assistant Director of Player Development in 1999. He was promoted to Director of International Scouting during the 2000 season and earned a promotion to Director of Player Personnel in 2002.

Moore was presented by the Atlanta Braves 400 Club with its Ivan Allen, Jr. "Mr. Baseball" Award, given to "the person who has contributed significantly to the promotion of baseball in the Atlanta area" in February 2006. He was also awarded the 2005 Executive of the Year by the Mid-Atlantic Scouts Association.

Moore played a key role in a majority of the Braves string of 14-straight division titles. Under the leadership of former Braves and Royals General Manager John Schuerholz, a 2017 Hall of Fame Inductee, the Braves earned the prestigious 'Organization of the Year' Award from Baseball America several times, including 2005, when 18 rookies contributed to a team that posted 90 wins. The Braves won at least 100 games five times between 1997-2003 and had not won fewer than 88 games in any non-strike shortened season since 1990 prior to the 2006 season.

Prior to joining the Braves organization, Moore served as an assistant baseball coach at George Mason University from 1990-94. While working on a graduate degree at GMU, Moore also managed the Winchester Royals of the Shenandoah Valley League from 1991-93.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. In 2013, Moore started the "C" You In the Major Leagues Foundation. It was created to support youth baseball, education, families in crisis and faith-based programs and organizations.

Moore was a member of the Board of Directors of the NAIA's Champions of Character program from 2007-10. The program instills an understanding of character values in sport and provides practical tools for student-athletes, coaches and parents to use in modeling exemplary character traits. George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest baseball players to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98 percent of the votes, the sixth-highest mark in history. He had his number retired by the Royals May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the AL career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.V., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a three games to one deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with three doubles, one triple, one home run and four RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

20 Frank White

Second Baseman, 1973-90

Career Honors

- ▶ Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- ▶ Named to five All-Star games
- ▶ Won eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, including six straight from 1977-82
- ▶ The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the third-most all-time among second basemen
- ▶ Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- ▶ Named to TSN Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- ▶ Played in seven postseasons and two World Series
- ▶ Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six-straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just four errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranked seventh all-time in fielding percentage among second basemen when he retired, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a three games to one deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, home runs, stolen bases, total bases and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the-park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

10 Dick Howser

Manager, 1981-87

Career Honors

- ▶ Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- ▶ Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- ▶ Ranks third in Royals history with 404 wins as Royals manager
- ▶ Directed Royals to three division titles
- ▶ Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for sixth-most wins in franchise history
- ▶ ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- ▶ Named to 1961 All-Star Team as a player
- ▶ 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year
- ▶ Elected into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won three division titles and a World Championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skipping the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 club was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the A.L. West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

HALL OF FAME HIGHLIGHTS

- World Exhibit — The Royals Hall of Fame is honored to continue work with our friends in Cooperstown on a feature exhibit celebrating the history of the World Baseball Classic. The international baseball tournament will be played for the fourth time in March of 2017. At least six Royals players are scheduled to participate including: Drew Butera (Italy); Joakim Soria (Mexico); Salvador Perez and Alcides Escobar (Venezuela); Danny Duffy and Eric Hosmer (USA); along with several Royals minor leaguers. The exhibit is planned to include artifacts from Ichiro Suzuki, Derek Jeter, Yu Darvish, Felix Hernandez along with Hall of Famers Mike Piazza, Bert Blyleven and Joe Torre
- Royals Hall of Fame Plaques — Learn about the accomplishments and contributions of all twenty-six (26) members of the Royals Hall of Fame. The organizations' highest honor was first awarded in 1986 to Royals pitcher Steve Busby and outfielder Amos Otis, with the most recent inductee being five-time All-Star first baseman Mike Sweeney.
- Dugout Theatre Film — Take a seat in an authentic replica of the Royals dugout and enjoy a tribute to the making of the 2015 World Champion Kansas City Royals. This full HD film, displayed on the 36-foot long screen of the Royals Hall of Fame Theater, features an inside perspective on the commitment and work of the entire organization - the "Royal Way" - that delivered championship baseball back to Kansas City.
- Design Your Own Ballpark by Populous — This one-of-a-kind technological interactive exhibit allows guests to design their own ballpark. Fans can make key design decisions as their "ideal" ballpark changes and develops on the screen in front of them.

62 YEARS OF BASEBALL IN KANSAS CITY

2017 marks the 62nd anniversary of the first American League game played in Kansas City. Left-handed pitcher Alex Kellner and the Athletics handed Ned Garver and the Detroit Tigers a 6-2 loss in the A's 1955 KC debut. Outfielder Bill Wilson hit the first home run in Kansas City A's history with a shot in the eighth inning. Pre-game festivities included a ceremonial first pitch by Kansas City native and former president Harry S. Truman.

The A's played all their games at Municipal Stadium (pictured below), sharing the facility with the Kansas City Chiefs football team. The stadium, located at 22nd and Brooklyn, opened July 3, 1923. It was originally named Muehlebach Field and also housed the Kansas City Monarchs and Kansas City Blues (minor league). A pair of short-lived football franchises, The Kansas City Blues (1924) and Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26) also played at the stadium. The Royals used the stadium from 1969-72.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director (and future Yankees General Manager) Syd Thrift was named as the director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May, 1974.

World Series History

1980 WORLD SERIES VS. PHILADELPHIA PHILLIES

Phillies win, 4-2

The first World Series in Kansas City history saw the Royals fall in six games to the Philadelphia Phillies. After falling behind by two games, the Royals won two games in Royals Stadium to even the matchup, but the National League club rallied for a pair of runs in the final frame of Game 5 at Royals Stadium to regain the lead. The showdown returned to Veterans Stadium for Game 6 and the Phillies secured the title in front of the home fans with a 4-1 verdict. In an exciting series spiced by several outstanding individual performances, Willie Aikens blasted 4 homers while hitting .400 and Amos Otis hit at a .478 clip with three homers in leading KC's offensive showing.

Game 1 • at Philadelphia • Tuesday, Oct. 14

Philadelphia came back from a 4-0 deficit to win a 7-6 thriller...20-game winner Dennis Leonard was unable to survive the Phillies five-run third inning...Bob Walk, the first rookie to start a World Series game since 1952, was the winner...Tug McGraw snuffed out a late rally to earn the save...the Royals struck early as Amos Otis homered in his first World Series at bat in the second inning...KC made it 4-0 via a Willie Aikens two-run homer in the third...the Phillies came in with five runs on four hits and a walk in the third inning...the big blow was a two-out, three-run homer by Bake McBride...Aikens homered again in the eighth.

The Phillies used late-inning heroics to win another come-from-behind battle...KC led 4-2 entering the eighth but Philly scored four times off ace reliever Dan Quisenberry...George Brett left the game in the sixth inning after going 2-for-2 with a walk...it was later revealed he was suffering from hemorrhoids...neither club could score off starters Larry Gura and Steve Carlton until the fifth when Philadelphia scored twice on three hits and a walk...KC scored an unearned run in the sixth and three times in the seventh, keyed by an Amos Otis' bases-loaded double.

The Royals evened the series at 2 by slugging their way to a 5-3 triumph...Willie Aikens homered in the first and second frames...a four-run first inning sent Phil's starter Larry Christenson packing...the Royals logged four consecutive extra-base hits in that inning...the big lead held up although Dennis Leonard needed late help from Dan Quisenberry as Philadelphia scored single runs in the seventh and eighth innings.

Philadelphia 0 1 0 0 0 0 1 1 0 - 3 10 1

Washington sacrifice fly scoring Clint Hurdle in the sixth...Phillies' relievers Ron Reed and Tug McGraw silenced the KC bats the rest of the way...the Royals loaded the bases via three walks in the ninth, but McGraw fanned Jose Cardenal to end the game.

Game 6 • at Philadelphia • Tuesday, Oct. 21

Behind the near-rabid support of 65,838 fans at Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia methodically eliminated the Royals, 4-1, behind the crafty work of Steve Carlton and Tug McGraw...Carlton allowed only four hits while striking out seven in his 7.0 innings of work and McGraw pitched the final two frames allowing three hits...Mike Schmidt gave the Phils all they really needed with a two-run single in the third inning...the Royals never ran out of spirit, sending Carlton to the clubhouse by scoring a run in the eighth...KC also threatened in the ninth, loading the bases with only one out, but McGraw fought his way out of the jam to bring the Phillies their first World Series title.

2014 WORLD SERIES VS. SAN FRANCISCO GIANTS

Giants win, 4-3

Kansas City participated in its first World Series in 29 years, as the Royals captured the American League pennant and faced the San Francisco Giants in a thrilling seven-game Fall Classic. In a nip-and-tuck set, the Giants claimed the deciding game behind series MVP Madison Bumgarner's 5.0 scoreless innings of relief in Game 7. The Royals threatened in the ninth inning, putting the tying run on third base with two outs, but could not advance the final 90 feet. Center fielder Lorenzo Cain capped his torrid postseason, batting .308 (8-for-26) with 3 doubles and 5 RBI during the series. Rookie fireballer Yordano Ventura started two of KC's wins, including Game 6 when he tossed 7.0 scoreless frames in a 10-0 triumph.

San Francisco jumped out to an early lead on the strength of Hunter Pence's two-run blast and never looked back. Madison Bumgarner earned his first of two victories in the Series. Catcher Salvador Perez provided KC's only offense with a solo home run in the seventh inning.

1960 All-Star Game

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the N.L. would win once again, shutting out the A.L., 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against A.L. starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the N.L. and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the N.L. a 3-0 lead.

The N.L. added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a two-run home run in the eighth to bring the A.L. within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Guttridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umpired both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

1973 All-Star Game

GAME SUMMARY

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the first All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill

The A.L. jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the N.L. All-Stars countered with two runs in the top of the third and also scored in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the N.L. after allowing two hits and one ER in 2.0 innings of work.

Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, giving the N.L. a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the fourth inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few, while Hall of Fame manager Joe Torre played in the game for the National League. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas - and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the A.L. players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

Dick Williams managed the American League and was joined by coaches Whitey Herzog and Chuck Tanner. The National League was managed by Sparky Anderson, who was joined by coaches Gene Mauch and Bill Virdon.

STEVE BUSBY

April 27, 1973 at Detroit
Kansas City 3, Detroit 0

In just his 10th Major League start, 23-year old Steve Busby recorded the first no-hitter in club history by shutting down Detroit on April 27, 1973. His no-hitter was the first in Tiger Stadium since 1952. He allowed 6 walks and struck out 4 in the 3-0 win.

In his next start, Busby allowed just 1 hit in 5.2 innings of work in a 5-3 win at Milwaukee on May 4. Busby picked up where he left off, tossing 5.1 hitless innings until Dave May homered in the sixth inning. Busby didn't allow any more hits but was removed later that inning because of wildness.

The Kansas City Royals maintain a strong presence in the area of scouting and player development in Latin America, the Caribbean and Asia. The Royals' International Operations is responsible for the scouting and signing of players, in addition to assisting in the development of players, by operating a brand new state-of-the-art complex in Guerra, Santo Domingo, in the Dominican Republic.

Originally established in 1986, the Dominican Royals received a new look in 2012 with the construction of a sports complex in Guerra, 30 minutes east of Santo Domingo, to house the franchise's Dominican Republic Academy. The two-level complex houses 72 players who will participate in the Dominican Summer League each season. On-site dormitories, a full kitchen, a classroom, computer lab, conference and recreation rooms, dining facilities, and management offices help develop the players off the field, while two and a half baseball fields meeting Major League Baseball specifications prepare the players to advance within the organization. The complex is also equipped with sheltered batting cages, weight training and laundry rooms, a clubhouse and expanded bullpens.

The Royals Autograph Policy states that credentialed members of the media are PROHIBITED from requesting autographs, equipment or photos from players AT ALL TIMES. Any violation of these guidelines will result in immediate revocation of the credential and could bar future use.

The Writing Press Box is located on Level 6 at Kauffman Stadium. Space is available for members of the working media ON ASSIGNMENT ONLY. Seats in the lower level will be assigned to members of the Kansas City BBWAA and other visiting BBWAA members. Other media will be assigned to row two.

The Broadcast Press Box is located on Level 4 at Kauffman Stadium. Radio and television broadcasts will initiate from this level.

Wireless Internet Access is available in the main press box free of charge. Please contact a Royals Media Relations member if you are having trouble connecting. In addition, some high-speed lines are provided.

The Press Dining Room is located behind the writing press box on Level 6 for a pregame meal ($10.00 charge) and refreshments. It is open for the media with appropriate credentials approximately two hours prior to the game. Complete NOTES, STATISTICAL INFORMATION and LINEUPS are available approximately three hours prior to the game toward the back of the writing press box and in the hallway of the broadcast press level.

Interview periods are arranged prior to and following Royals games through the Royals Communications Department.

Pregame: The manager, coaches and players are generally accessible before batting practice on the field and in the clubhouse. Players are not available during stretching and batting practice, and pregame interviews should not interfere with the players' specific game preparations. Manager Ned Yost is available to the media before games in the Royals' dugout, usually around 4:30 p.m. prior to 7:15 p.m. games. He may also be available before the clubhouse opens upon special request through the Communications Department. We request that reporters and broadcasters leave the field and dugout area at the conclusion of batting practice and that photographers report to their assigned photo positions.

Manager Postgame: The Royals will conduct a postgame interview with the manager in the interview room on Level One immediately following each Royals home game. This is the only area where the media may interview the manager postgame. There will be no postgame interviews allowed in the manager's office. Postgame interviews with all personnel should be related to the game and not of the feature variety.

Photographers will be assigned to photo bays on the field at either end of each dugout or the bay located in the main press box. Photographers in the dugout field boxes should leave between innings only. DENNY MATTHEWS ANNOUNCER

Denny Matthews is in his 49th season behind the microphone, calling Royals games since the club's inception in 1969. The 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in 2004 and has broadcast exclusively for the same team, without interruption, in six different decades.

In 2015, Matthews signed a four-year agreement to stay with the Royals through the 2018 season, which would be his 50th in the Kansas City broadcast booth. He will become the third broadcaster to reach 50 seasons with the same Major League club, joining Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles, 67) and Jaime Jarrin (Los Angeles, 56).

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his 48 years with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Buddy Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-98 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Bob Davis, Steve Stewart and Steve Physioc have served as Denny's partners since the beginning of the 2008 season.

The veteran broadcaster has lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers.

Matthews is active in the Kansas City community and dedicates his time and resources to several area charities, including the SAFE program, a charity that supports families of fallen policemen, firemen and emergency workers, as well as Operation Lifesaver, a railroad crossing safety and awareness program. He is also the author of the two books: the 2004, "Tales from the Royals Dugout", and the 2009 "Hi, Anybody" and co-author of the 1999 book "Play by Play-25 Years of Royals on Radio." He's also a 2005 inductee into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

Matthews graduated from Central Catholic High School in Bloomington, Ill., and was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in August, 2001. He is a 1966 graduate of Illinois Wesleyan where he lettered in football and baseball for three years and finished eighth in the nation (NAIA) in pass receiving in 1965. This past October, he received a "Distinguished Alumnus" honor from IWU.

Prior to joining the Royals, Matthews worked for WMBD-TV and radio and KMOX-TV. His brother, Mike, is the radio analyst for Illinois State University basketball.

The Royals 49th Spring Training season in club history will be their 14th at the club's facility in Surprise, Ariz.

The Royals and Texas Rangers share a $48 million, 10,500-seat multi-purpose Recreation and Major League Spring Training Campus on land owned by the City of Surprise. In addition, the city is using the facilities for adult and youth recreation programs, community events and programs, special events and meeting facilities.

The stadium complex and baseball practice fields are incorporated into a master-planned municipal center, including administrative offices, recreation/aquatic center, 23,000-square-foot library and 35-40 acre passive park.

In 2015, the Royals complex underwent an $8-million renovation, adding approximately 14,000-square feet to the facility. The project included expanding the clubhouse, coaches' locker room, training and dining facilities, while giving the club six additional offices on site.

Surprise is approximately 35 minutes northwest of Phoenix, past Sun City West off Highway 60. The complex is located on 125 acres in the vicinity of Bullard Avenue and Greenway Road.

Populous (formerly HOK), an internationally-renowned Kansas City architectural firm devoted to creating exceptional sports facilities, was designated to design the facility.

Groundbreaking took place with Hall of Famers George Brett and Nolan Ryan in attendance on May 21, 2001. The facility was dedicated during a special ceremony and community celebration attended by members of the Royals and Rangers on December 7, 2002. The two teams played the first game at the complex on February 27, 2003, with the Royals coming away with a 6-3 win.

The Royals have won the unofficial Cactus League title three times, their first season in Arizona in 2003, 2011 and 2013.

YORDANO VENTURA

Our brother and teammate, Yordano Ventura, passed away on the morning of January 22 in his native Dominican Republic, as the result of an automobile accident. He was 25.

He joined the Royals' organization in 2008 as a 17-year-old, signing as a non-drafted free agent. He rose through the minor league ranks, pitching two seasons at Kansas City's Dominican Academy, before coming to the United States for the first time in 2010. During his time in the minors, he developed his signature pitch, a devastating fastball that sometimes reached triple digits on the radar gun.

Yordano's oversized smile and magnetic personality made him a favorite among his teammates, Royals fans and the entire organization. On most days, he could be found laughing and joking with his baseball family in the clubhouse. However, on days when he pitched, that smile was replaced by a quiet confidence and an intense fire, which he brought with him to the mound on every start.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Earned the Joe Burke Special Achievement Award in 2014...also honored as the top pitcher in the organization (Paul Splittorff Award) in 2013.
- Pitched twice in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game (2012-13), making the start in the 2012 contest at Kauffman Stadium.
- Finished his career with 38 victories, which ranks seventh among Royals pitchers 25 and younger...his total also tied for 11th in the American League from 2014-16.
- Pitched in two World Series and made nine postseason starts in his career, the second-most by any pitcher before age 25, behind only Atlanta's Steve Avery (1991-93).
- Tossed 7.0 shutout innings in a 10-0 win over the Giants in Game 6 of the 2014 World Series, forcing a deciding Game 7...became the first Royals rookie to win a World Series game.

Salvador Perez

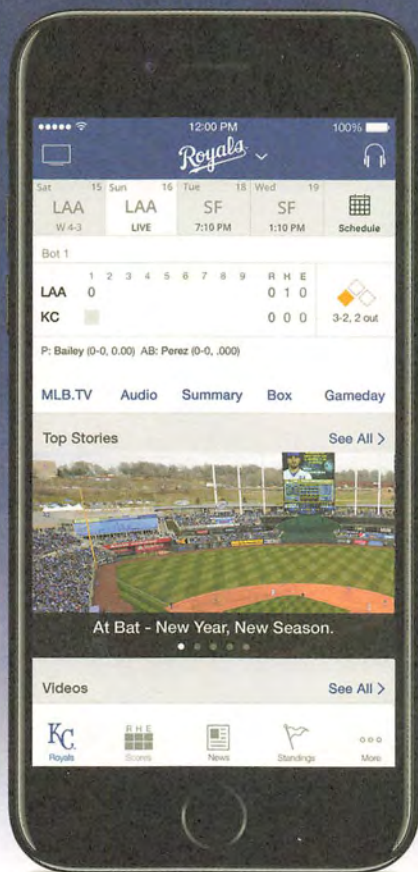

"I was lucky. I got to see (Yordano) grow up from the time I met him in 2008 and then through the minors and to his Major League debut to the World Series. It was special. I felt lucky to have known him," Assistant GM Rene Francisco

"He brought a whole attitude and a whole new energy to us...an energy that you really can't teach in somebody; it's just instilled in you," Eric Hosmer

"He was so full of life; he was a wonderful young man. He was always very respectful, but such an intense competitor," Manager Ned Yost

"He was a great kid with a huge heart and a great smile. He was very engaging every time you talked to him. He was just a fun-loving guy who showed up every day with a smile," Pitching Coach Dave Eiland
